Memorial Presbyterian Church 803 E College Avenue Thursday, May 9 – 2:00-3:30p

Spring is here, and we are going to brighten up our doorsteps by creating our own May Baskets! You may be unfamiliar with this popular tradition, so we'll discuss the history of them too. Perhaps you have your own May basket story to share?! We look forward to seeing you and celebrating this wonderful time of year!

Memorial Presbyterian Church 803 E College Avenue Thursday, May 2 – 2:00-3:30p

Jena Kloepfel, senior care advisor, mom of 6, and an all-around fun lady, will lead us through the steps of a fun crafting activity as we bask in the joy of spring's arrival to the Fox Cities!

Memorial Presbyterian Church 803 E College Avenue Thursday, May 16 – 2:00-3:30p

THE STORY of CHARLES LINDBERGH'S PATH to GLORY (1927): The morning of Friday, May 20, 1927, alone in a little plane powered by a single engine, Charles A. Lindbergh took off from a muddy field on the outskirts of New York. In this presentation by Dick Campbell, we will see how Lindbergh achieved this historical event and forever changed his future.
